OHIO COUNTY IN A ROLE OF PROMINENCE

At the Meeting of the West Virginia League of Republican Clubs at Parkersburg.

"DICK ROBERTSON" STARTED

The Stampede to Parkersburg by Casting Ohio's Sixty-seven at the Right Moment.

The rear guard of the Wheeling delegation to the Parkersburg meeting of the West Virginia League of Republican Clubs, came to town on the evening Ohio River train. In the party were Messrs. James K. Hall and Charles H. Henning, who had stopped off at Sistersville to see friends. In the afternoon County Clerk Robertson, Alex R. Campbell, John E. Schellhase, Sam O. Boyce, M. A. Chew, Congressman Dwyer, Lester Smith, Sheriff Richards, Charles O. Roemer and several others returned. The boys were all enthusiastic over their trip, and especially with the speech of Senator Thurston. Sheriff Richards pronounced it the best he ever heard; Alex Campbell ranked Thurston with Charles Emory Smith, whose Wheeling Opera House address in the fall of '98 was recalled as a masterpiece of oratory. All said they were willing to travel hundreds of miles to hear Thurston. It was the first complete exposition of Republican principles given in public in West Virginia this campaign, and for this reason alone was listened to with great interest. The enthusiasm with which each "plank" of the party's position was received indicates without a doubt that the administration of Mr. McKinley is heartily endorsed by West Virginia Republicans.

As usual, Ohio county played a prominent role in the meeting. In fact the Wheeling crowd started the slump to Parkersburg, and the Moundsville man feels that he owes his success largely to the opportune throwing of the Ohio county sixty-seven to him. This occurred while the Wood county delegation were fighting among themselves, unable to decide how many votes Vandervort and Barrett respectively were to receive. The Wheeling crowd saw that Wood was in bad shape, and the determination was quickly arrived at to stampede the meeting for a man who would be acceptable to everyone. Parkersburg filled the bill completely, and he was selected from the bunch. While "Dick" Robertson, standing on his seat, was endeavoring to get the eye of the chair, Charley Henning, Sam Boyce and others got in touch with the Monongalia and other neighboring delegations and sounded the Parkersburg slogan for all they were worth. Finally, Mr. Robertson was recognized by the chair, and announced that Ohio county (which had cast eleven votes each for Barrett, Vandervort and Robinson, and thirty-four for Parkersburg) would change her vote and give Parkersburg sixty-seven. Of course this set the convention into an uproar, and Monongalia, Kanawha and McDowell following suit with their solid votes for Parkersburg. In another minute the stampede to Parkersburg was on—and then Barrett and Vandervort withdrew, and the Moundsville man went into office without a dissenting vote.

Mr. Hall is more than pleased over the results of his pilgrimage to Parkersburg. He has planned since that will bear fruit in votes galore at the state nominating convention in Charleston next July. The Ohio county crowd at Parkersburg ably seconded his efforts, and they return full of confidence that "Jim" will pull down the auditorial prize. It is undoubtedly a fact that he was the popular man of the entire bunch, and it appears as if for anything his candidacy is becoming a winner.

Mr. Hall said to the Intelligencer last night: "I appreciate at its full worth the work Charley Henning is doing in my behalf, especially what he did at Parkersburg. For efficient work I don't know another man in the state who is his equal. In another four years he will have become one of the most popular young Republican leaders in West Virginia. I predict for him a future of exceeding brightness in the field of politics."

The Intelligencer received the following telegram last night: GRAFTON, W. Va., March 8. To the Editor of the Intelligencer. Since the Intelligencer has raised the question of veracity between Dr. Love, business manager of the Sentinel, and Dr. Stathers, I wish to say that the former's statement is correct. Never having met Dr. Stathers I could not have had any conversation with him on any subject. J. W. HOLTE, Editor Grafton Sentinel.

From which it would appear that the person Dr. Stathers talked with was Mr. Love, and that the former misunderstood him. Dr. Stathers, be it known, informed the Intelligencer at Parkersburg that he had it from the editor of the Grafton Sentinel that Taylor would send a solid Scherr delegation to the state convention. Mr. Love, yesterday morning, said he had been misquoted by the doctor; that what he did say was that Scherr was Taylor's second choice, Lafollette, of course, being first choice. It would appear that Dr. Stathers misunderstood Mr. Love. It is not thought for an instant that Dr. Stathers intentionally misrepresented the Grafton man.

State Senator Oliver S. Marshall, of New Cumberland, was in the city yesterday, en route home from the Parkersburg love-feast. Like everybody else the senator believes the assembling of the clans will result in much good for the Republican organization of the state.

Ranking next in interest to the contests for governor and auditor on the Republican state ticket, comes, perhaps, that for state treasurer, for which there are five aspirants. They include

T. T. McDougal, editor of the Ceredo Advance, who stands very high in the estimation of the people of both parties in the lower end of the state; S. R. Hansen, of Marshall county, former speaker of the house of delegates, and Messrs. Woodyard, of Wirt, Peter Shuman, of Kanawha, and W. W. Riley, of Jackson.

Hon. C. B. Scott, of Bathany, who named a winner in Mayor J. C. Parkinson, of Moundsville, for the presidency of the State League of Republican Clubs, was in the city yesterday en route home from Parkersburg. Mr. Scott had the honor of nominating Auditor Lafollette four years ago, and his friends hope the same share of good luck will attend his race for the Republican nomination for state senator, which will be decided by the Brooke county brethren at the primaries, at a date to be selected soon. The nomination will be equivalent to an election.

There are several contingent candidates grooming themselves for the nomination for superintendent of schools on the Republican ticket from this county. Prof. W. H. Anderson has already announced himself, and Prof. F. H. Crago has assurances of support from Mr. Dowell, Mingo and Wayne counties. Then there is A. S. Bell, of West Liberty, formerly county engineer and instructor in the Linsley Institute. All are for James K. Hall for auditor, and their contest for Superintendent Trotter's place is contingent on Mr. Hall's chances.

In Clerk Robertson's Office. Yesterday, in Clerk Robertson's office, the certificate of incorporation of the Novelty Machine and Electric Company was placed on record. The incorporators are R. E. Schubart, Charles Menkemeller, C. E. Kurner, H. G. Friedrichs and A. H. Weidensch. Capital stock, subscribed, $500; paid up, $50, and authorized $50,000. Power of attorney from Novelty Machine and Electric Company to A. H. Weidensch.

These real estate transfers were recorded: Deed, made March 2, 1900, by F. C. Swift and wife to Mary E. Hess; consideration $3,100; transfers part of lot 10 in square 1, in Water's addition. Deed, made March 1, 1900, by F. A. Woelfer and others to C. L. Woelfer; consideration $5; transfers interest of the parties of the first part in the estate of Mrs. Rose Woelfer.

The Circuit Court.

The following orders were entered yesterday: C. F. Bowman, executor, vs. Wood Brothers Planning Mill Company; the death of the executor was suggested and the cause proceeded in the name of Samuel McCarty and other Bowman administrators. W. F. Hubbard vs. Wheeling Bridge Company; defendant filed bill of exceptions, which was made a part of the record.

Burned by Furnace Gas.

John Evans, of the South Side, an employee of the Belmont blast furnace, was severely burned at this plant yesterday morning. While standing in front of his furnace, there came a sudden rush of hot gas, and with each force that it knocked Evans down. The parts of his body not protected by clothing were burned, and it is feared he inhaled some of the gas. Evans was removed to the North Wheeling hospital, and is expected to recover.

SUITS.

Here's one gem amongst many: Made of semi-rough, dull finished black cheviot—twill hardly discernible. Lined throughout with best black taffeta. Jacket has the jaunty double-breasted Eton form, with flaring scalloped Medici collar and scalloped lappels. Both collar and lappels are faced with tuckered taffeta silk, handsomely appliqued and braided. The skirt conforms in novel construction—starting at the skirt band are quarter inch stitched plaits, spaced about two inches apart, which broaden out to the knee line, merging into wide side plaits extending to bottom. Double box plait back.

Suit Prices $7.95 to $59.00.

DRESS SKIRTS,

too, show decided advancement. This one is of black taffeta silk, which is a mass of longitudinal tucks. Circling around the bottom is six inches of bold silk applique on a ground of substantial black net; this meets and broadens out at the centre of front, extending in diminishing form well up to the waist band. The "lining" consists of a separate silk skirt of equal quality, with a ten-inch lace edged accordean plaited ruffle.

THIS ONE is of black broadcloth. Upper portion is plain. Twelve inches of the bottom is flared and appliqued with festoonings of black cloth over rich violet cloth. Neat black soutache braiding runs riot over this portion. Others here equally as interesting.

Skirt Prices $3.95 to $59.00.

We also have the correct things in JACKETS and WAISTS.
